

Residential programs and rebates

Visit cashrebatesnow.com ... explore all the ways you can save money and energy!

Home energy analysis

Use our quick, easy online energy audit for a high-level assessment of your home energy use. For more specific improvements to help reduce energy bills and improve home comfort, request an in-home energy-saving audit.

New construction

If you are building a new home and plan to install energy-efficient equipment, you may be eligible for new construction rebates.

Insulation

Use an Authorized Insulation Contractor to earn air sealing and insulation rebates by making improvements to your existing home. Rebates range from $200 to $650.

Heating system and maintenance

Our heating system rebates for existing homes can make a big difference. Upgrade to a high-efficiency natural gas furnace or boiler, energy-efficient gas hearth/fireplace, programmable thermostat or advanced thermostat and claim rebates from $25 to $500.

Be sure to check out heating system tune-up rebates! A $35 rebate gives you peace of mind that your heating system is operating at maximum efficiency.

Water heating

Water heating is your home's second-largest natural gas user (home heating is first). Water heating rebates range from $45 to $300. Plus, get a free water conservation kit to begin saving on your home's water heating costs.

Appliances

Do you heat your water with natural gas? If so, get appliance rebates for ENERGY STAR®-certified dishwashers and clothes washers for new or existing homes.

Income eligible programs

Weatherization assistance is available to low income customers, and the 4U2 program is for limited income customers. Both programs assist with improving your home's energy efficiency with weatherization and equipment replacement services. All services under these programs are available at little to no cost for income eligible customers.
